

APRIL 2022 • VOLUME 21, NO. 4

Holy and Mighty

This is the time, dear friends. This is the time where the season of Lent draws us near to the good news of Easter, the good news of Jesus' resurrection that claims and frees us, that Christ is risen!

I pray that you will continue to live into the invitation to return to God. In our hearts, thoughts, actions, and speech—may we keep returning to God, for God is indeed gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

As we will remember well in these days ahead—God is the one to whom we sing praise, all glory, laud, and honor to you, redeemer, king. I hope you'll prepare to worship on Palm/Passion Sunday (April 10).

And then we'll remember Jesus' love for us, the gift of Holy Communion, and the commandment to love one another as Jesus loves us. Please gather for the Lord's Supper, to eat this bread, drink this cup, as we worship on Maundy Thursday (April 14).

Then we'll behold the cross prepared for our Savior, holy and mighty, holy and immortal, have mercy on us, as we proclaim the triumph of the cross on Good Friday (April 15).

Soon the signs of spring will surround us with hope for new life and the promise of Jesus' resurrection, and I pray you will share in worship as we rejoice that Jesus Christ is risen today on Easter Sunday (April 17).

This is the time where we remember God's good news that endures, even as so many other things change: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

As we celebrate Easter, I invite you to consider what newness of life is stirring within. Perhaps this is the time for you to not only return to God, but to return to faith practices, meaningful relationships, service for others, to intentionally practice living among God's faithful people.

May this Easter season ahead be a time to show up for yourself and tend to your life of faith: pray, press play on worship accessible online from home, enter the sanctuary to worship God in the company of others. May this be a time to care for others and reach out with grace and kindness, volunteer and participate in returning and renewing ministries. And may this be a time to practice generosity and give faithful financial support for the mission to which God is calling Grace Lutheran Church.

May our holy and mighty God bless you and keep you, rejoice in your returning, redeem you with the amazing love of Christ, and equip you to be sent forth to love and serve God and neighbor.

Peace,
Pastor Amanda

Worship in April, Holy Week & Easter Sunday

It continues to be a joy to welcome and greet one another as we share in the act of worshipping God together. Whether you are worshipping weekly, visiting occasionally, newly returning to the sanctuary, or getting ready to return, welcome! If you are continuing to worship at home, welcome! We gather for worship on Sundays at 9:00 A.M. in the sanctuary, via YouTube livestream or the posted worship videos on our website. Thanks be to God for you and your participation in the worship life of Grace Lutheran Church.

Sunday, April 3, we gather for worship on the 5th Sunday in Lent. You are welcome to gather in the parlor from 8:30-9:00 A.M. on April 3 & 10 for conversation about the daily Lenten devotional (printed copies still available at Grace & electronic copies included in the weekly Grace Notes email).

Palm/Passion Sunday, April 10

9:00 A.M. (Sanctuary & Livestream)

From sounds of praise singing “Hosanna” as we wave palm branches to hearing shouts of “crucify him,” we gather for worship on Palm/Passion Sunday. Join us for worship as we enter Holy Week and draw near to Easter.

Maundy Thursday, April 14

12:00 P.M. (Sanctuary) & 7:00 P.M. (Sanctuary & Livestream)

We hear Jesus’ commandment to love one another as he loved us, and we enter into the Three Days of Jesus’ death and resurrection. We confess our sins, share Holy Communion, and remember how Jesus washed the disciples’ feet as we recall the night he was betrayed.

Good Friday, April 15

12:00 P.M. (Sanctuary) & 7:00 P.M. (Sanctuary & Livestream)

We hear the story of Jesus’ death on a cross, and even on this day, we remember Jesus’ triumph through the cross. In worship we will hear the story and offer prayers for the world for whom Christ died.

Easter Sunday, April 17

7:00 A.M. (Sanctuary & Livestream) & 9:00 A.M. (Sanctuary & Livestream)

Alleluia! Christ is risen! We gather to boldly proclaim that death does not have the last say, for Jesus Christ is risen today. Join us in worship to share the good news of the empty tomb and celebrate the amazing promise of Jesus’ resurrection.

Then, the joyous celebration of Jesus’ resurrection continues. See you in worship on Sunday, April 24, the second Sunday of Easter, as our Sunday school students again share in serving church through worship.

PEACE AND QUIET - Please join Deacon Judy Rooney for a time to reflect on what we all need more of, Peace and Quiet. If you have a child in 3rd Grade (or older) who you would like to receive a Bible please contact Kristy Nellesen before April 1st fleming9126@sbcglobal.net Bibles will be presented to the children during service on Sunday, April 10, 2022.

SUNDAY SCHOOL -

Our one and only March gathering was both our traditional and action lesson in one. The children were asked to invite a friend. Three new friends joined us and Sunday School teachers taught in many different formats from crafts, discussions, to physically carrying a person around. The lesson was about the four friends story out of the book of Luke. Yes, it is a miracle that Jesus helped a disabled man walk again, but it is because of the sheer determination of his friends that it became possible. All age levels were easily able to explain the story after their lesson at the large group meaning.

Mark your calendar for these upcoming exciting opportunities to gather, learn and have fun:

April 10- Sunday School lesson (Story of Easter) and 3rd Graders will receive their bibles.

April 24- our action day will be once again by popular demand to serve the church (sign up will take place on April 17)

April 30- First Holy Communion class will take place at 9:00 am in the sanctuary

May 1- at 9:00 am first graders will participate in their first communion.

COUNCIL RETREAT UPDATE- Members of the church council met on Saturday, February 26, to review and process the various congregational listening sessions that happened in late January and early February. Over all the sessions, most comments could be categorized into the following themes:

- Worship and Music*
- Relationships*
- Education and Youth*
- Outreach*
- Communication*

Discussion revolved around things that we are doing, things that we could be doing, and things that we would like to do in the future.

Prioritizing staffing positions is a first step in strengthening these programs and ministries. In view of that, the council will be restructuring the Director of Youth Education, Director of Worship and Music, and Communications positions with a goal of filling these positions as soon as possible.

Additionally, we will also be looking at ways the council can facilitate the creation or restoration of ministries led and supported by congregation members in the areas of relationships and outreach. As Grace continues to move forward in Christ, we welcome the participation and input of all members of our Christian community.

 EGG HUNT - We are so excited to offer our Easter Egg Hunt this year. Children are invited to meet on Easter, April 17th, after the 9:00 a.m. service by the playground (back of the church). If there are poor weather conditions, it will be moved inside.
